PCHS rolls past Green Valley Christian

Mustangs make home debut this week

By Peggy Jones

The Pershing County football team made the long trip to Beatty worthwhile, rolling to a 65-0 victory over Green Valley Christian in the North/South Challenge.

Coach Mike Brooks said he was pleased with how the Mustangs played.

"We were very happy with how our kids performed after an overnight stay and long bus ride," Brooks said. "It was also very nice to play in much cooler temperatures compared to last season."

Quinton McKinney had a big game for the Mustangs, scoring two offensive touchdowns and returning a kick for another touchdown. He also recorded an interception on defense.

Pershing County spread the scoring around, with Thomas Brooks, Jaxson Happy, Eddie Aceves, Amare Rosas and Ryan Houston each scoring touchdowns.

Brooks also credited the Mustangs' work in the trenches.

"Our offensive and defensive lines played very well, with Brayden Padgett leading the way," he said.

The defense kept Green Valley Christian off the scoreboard while adding points of its own with a safety. Aaron Zelaya also recorded an interception, giving the Mustangs two takeaways through the air along with McKinney's interception.

Brooks called the trip a success and thanked parents for providing snacks and drinks for the players during the long journey. There was even some competition away from the football field, with Houston Allen winning the team's PlayStation tournament on the bus.

The Mustangs return home Friday, Sept. 11, to face the Quincy Trojans in a nonconference game. Junior varsity is scheduled for 4:30 p.m., followed by varsity at 7 p.m.

The game will also be Future Mustang Night.

"Quincy is off to a strong start, so we are happy to play them for our last contest before league play," Brooks said. "We are hoping to pack the stands and field with future Mustangs."

Road-weary Vaqueros to host South Tahoe in first home game

Home debut, Homecoming week as Vaqueros host South Tahoe

By Robert Perea

After four consecutive road games, 1,115 miles and 22 hours of travel, the Fernley Vaqueros finally get to play their first home game of the season Friday night, and they'll bring with them the momentum of last week's 46-0 win at Sparks.

After two consecutive losses, both of which Fernley coach Anfernee Sloan believes his team should have won, the Vaqueros got back in the win column by dominating Sparks.

But Sloan said more importantly, they did it by correcting several of the problems that cost them dearly in the back-to-back losses to Bishop and Elko.

"I'm not going to say we fixed it one week," Sloan said. "But I think we might have kind of cracked the da Vinci code there for a second and might have figured out what it is that we need to do."

First on Sloan's agenda for Friday night was improved tackling, after Elko runners consistently got extra yards after contact the week before. A close second was finishing drives on offense.

The Vaqueros had come up empty on five trips inside the opponent's 20-yard line the previous two weeks.

Our Town Hero:
Brad Bauman

Tonight, we are honored to recognize someone who has spent more than three decades making Winnemucca a better place not for recognition or a title, but simply because he saw a need and stepped up to help.

That person is Brad Bauman.

For more than 30 years, Brad has dedicated thousands of volunteer hours to our community through youth sports, conservation, outdoor education, and service to others.

His impact can be seen in programs, partnerships, and opportunities that continue to benefit local families today.

Brad's greatest passion has always been investing in young people. He helped establish the Winnemucca Buckaroo Club Wrestling program, giving boys and girls as young as five the opportunity to learn the sport.

That program became a foundation for generations of Lowry High School wrestlers, teaching discipline, confidence, perseverance, and sportsmanship long before they entered high school athletics.

Brad carried that same commitment into the Winnemucca Youth Football League, serving as a coach, referee, board member, and eventually league president. He gave more than a decade to Winnemucca Little League as a coach, umpire, All-Star coach, mentor, and behind-the-scenes leader, always stepping in wherever he was needed.

Brad's service extends far beyond athletics. He helped make the James Kinney Community Fishing Pond a reality, creating a place where thousands of children and families can fish, enjoy the outdoors, and make memories together.

He has also mentored students through Trout in the Classroom and helped create outdoor experiences for individuals with disabilities through the Cody Louk DreamKeeper Foundation, where he has served since 2005.

What truly sets Brad apart is that he has never sought the spotlight. As one fellow volunteer put it, "He never looked for recognition or titles. He simply saw a need, found the right people, and got to work."

That spirit has earned Brad an affectionate nickname around Winnemucca: the "Mayor of Youth Sports."

Brad could not be with us tonight, but we hope he knows how much his community appreciates everything he has given to Winnemucca, and it is our honor to present him with the Our Town Hero Marigold Award.

Exactly how many Thomases do the Lowry High School girls cross country team need.

Well, this fall there are three of them, racing on a team that is the reigning 3A state runner-up. Come November, it's going to take all three to get back to that same place or even better.

Lowry traveled to Reed High School and Shadow Mountain Park last Saturday for the Reed Invitational. The Buckaroos finished third in the girls standings.

Leading the way for the Buckaroos was senior Alyla Thomas, placing third with a time of 21 minutes, 9 seconds.

Reno High School placed six runners in the top 10, including race winner, Avery Johnson in a time pf 20:02. Spanish Springs' Taizley Felsted (20:32) placed second.

Two more Thomas' finished in the top 18 and both are freshmen. Ajerra was 14th at 23:17 and Makayla finished 18th with a time of 23:31.

Lowry junior Azure Sagers (24:02) and Taylor Soderstrom (24:04) were not far behind in 22nd and 23rd, respectfully.

Reno captured the team title with 27 points, followed by Spanish Springs (41), Lowry (74) and McQueen (91).

In the boys 5,000-meter race, Lowry junior Patrick Moses paced the field of seven Buckaroo runners, finish 19th with a time of 19:47.

Anden Thomas was 28th at 20:49 and sophomores Ben Bayles (21:09), Josiah Merki (21:37) and Edward Moyer (21:43) were 31st, 32nd and 33rd, respectfully.

Sebastian Fuchslin (23:33) placed 44th and Quincy Hall (25:26) finished 53rd. Both are freshmen.

Reno had six of the top-10 finishers, with Zachary Folen winning with a time of 16:59. Spanish Springs' Everett Bowlin was second at 17:04.

Reno took home the team title with 19 points, while Spanish Springs (42) placed second. McQueen (100), Lowry (112), Wooster (137), Reed (146) and Oasis Academy (184) completed the team scores.

Lowry had two boys run in the JV race, with Andrew Lockie (27:32) 37th and Dominique McClerkin (27:36) in 38th.

Lowry travels to Reno and Damonte Ranch High School for the Ranch Twilight Invitational.

With the top two runners in the girls race and five of the top seven in the boys, the Churchill County High School cross country teams swept the team titles at the Fernley 4K on Sept. 4

Fallon freshman Issabelle Walter-Chicas-Garibay won the girls race with a time of 17:22, followed by sophomore teammate Aubrey Strickland in 17:29.

With 22 runners from seven schools, Fallon was the only school to have a full team of five runners and finished with 15 team points to win the girls team title.

Churchill County also dominated the boys race, placing five runners in the top seven. Freshman Cayson Lacow led Fallon with a second-place finish in 14:39, followed by senior Jackson Barbee in fourth at 15:32, sophomore Cody Frey in fifth at 15:45, junior Lars Rasmussen in sixth at 15:56 and junior Tayven Martinez in seventh at 16:06.

The Greenwave won the boys team championship with 20 points. Fernley was second with 55. Five schools field full teams and 52 runners competed.

Fallon's depth showed throughout the results, with additional top-20 finishes from Landon Liston and Michael Liston both finishing in 16:55, Alex Sorensen (16:59), Isaac Frederick (17:09), Levi Bradford (17:58), Alexander McBride (18:00), Alex Bacallo (19:27) and Thomas Alvarado (25:50).

Longhorns back on the road for two matches; host Lowry on Tuesday

The Battle Mountain High School volleyball team kicked a four-match, two-weekend road trip, with its furthest destination this past weekend.

The Longhorns first stopped in Reno this past Friday and closed out the weekend in Tahoe City, Calif.

“With this trip being our farthest one, we ended up performing well against both teams that we faced,” said BMHS head coach Julia Ramirez. “The progress the girls make each week is amazing to witness when they get to put all their hard work into the games we play. We look forward to settling into an offensive rhythm and working on being comfortable in uncomfortable situations.”

On Friday evening, Battle Mountain dropped the first set 25-20 to the Falcons, only to rally back 25-20, 25-18 and a dominating 25-13 win in the fourth set.

Senior Paitynn Johns and Kamilia Farias paced the hitting attack, with 11 and 10 kills, respectively, as Battle Mountain had 31 in the match. Ella Matheus and fellow junior Yadira Vazquez contributed four and three kills, respectively.

Keona Colver had a team-high four aces, with Miranda Lomeli, Matheus, Farias, Vazquez and Johns each recording three aces. Colver (17) and Farias (14) paced the dig count, as Matheus and Johns had four each and Vazquez and Lomeli three apiece. Lomeli had a team-high 20 assists.

Battle Mountain faced one of the top teams in the league on Saturday, in North Tahoe. Even though the Lakers swept the match 25-14, 25-16, 26-24, Ramirez was happy with her team’s performance.

“Actually, I was not disappointed in our play at all,” said the coach. “We are one of a couple teams to play them that close like we did in the third set.”

North Tahoe is 10-0 on the season and has lost only one set all year — that being to Portola, Calif.

Johns finished with a team-high seven kills, with Farias and Vazquez adding five each and Matheus three. Rami McGrath, Johns and Vazquez each had a block and Lomeli 14 assists. Colver led the way with 13 digs, Johns seven and Matheus six.

Battle Mountain sits 6-10-1 overall and 2-2 in the Northern 2A and travels to Oasis Academy on Friday for a 5 p.m. start and Yerington on Saturday at noon.

The Longhorns are home on Tuesday to play Lowry at 6 p.m. and travel to West Wendover on Sept. 18.

The Pershing County High School girls soccer team battled through two close matches over the weekend, earning a 0-0 tie against Quincy, Calif., on Friday before falling 2-1 to Whittell on Saturday.

The Mustangs had just one substitute available against Quincy but held their opponent scoreless.

Coach Kelly Brooks said the girls fought hard throughout the game, with Lily Reynolds and Aaliyah Lora each playing one half in goal.

Mili Gonzalez and Elanie De Los Reyes were solid on the back line, while Fatima Arteaga made adjustments the team had worked on during the week and played well.

Desaray Vidrio, Mary McBride and Josie Brooks controlled the center of the field, while Alejandra Piñeda and Camila Garcia worked up front.

Garcia created several scoring opportunities and appeared to give the Mustangs the lead when one of her shots found the net, but officials called back the goal because another Pershing County player was offside.

Brooks also praised first-year players Evelyn Gonzalez and Natalie Gonzalez for stepping up their play and continuing to improve.

The Mustangs returned to the field Saturday and lost a hard-fought 2-1 game to Whittell while playing without their most experienced senior and their more experienced goalkeeper.

Those absences forced Pershing County to use a different formation, with McBride and Brooks moving to center midfield despite not having played those positions before.

“We were really impressed by their abilities to play those spots despite not Piñeda scored the Mustangs’ goal after receiving a pass from Vidrio.

Lora stepped into goal and made several saves, while De Los Reyes repeatedly chased down Whittell breakaways. Gonzalez and Arteaga also had strong games as outside defenders.

Brooks said Vidrio and Garcia “played their hearts out and were all over the field,” while Evelyn and Natalie Gonzalez held their own despite both being in their first year of soccer.

“Despite taking a loss, I am super proud of these girls because they don’t let anything stop them,” Brooks said. “They gave every ounce of effort they had for the entire 80 minutes of the game.”

Lowry girls golf team host preseason icebreaker tournament

Northern 3A plays Elko County doubleheader on Monday and Tuesday
By Tony Erquiaga
Range Media

In a bit of an ironic moment last week, the Lowry High School girls golf team hosted a preseason Icebreaker tournament, also featuring Elko, Spring Creek and Fernley.

Named for breaking the ice and getting to know other players in a tournament setting, the girls did not think they would get late-summer weather that was iced down.

Cool temperatures in the 60s and high winds greeted the players at Winnemucca Municipal Golf Course.

The regular season began on Sept. 8 and Sept. 9, in Dayton and Winnemucca, respectively. Results were not available at press time.

The Northern 3A makes its Elko County swing at Spring Creek Golf Course on Monday and Ruby View Golf Course in Elko on Tuesday.

Fallon hosts its tournament on Monday, Sept. 22, and Fernley hosts at The Ranch at Desert Lakes on Tuesday, Sept. 23.

This year, the Northern 3A is conducting a regional championship, with the 36-hole tournament starting on Oct. 5 at Lake Tahoe Golf Course.

The final 18 holes will be played at Tahoe Donner Golf Course on Oct. 6.

State Qualifying

For teams and individuals, a qualifying standard will be utilized. The standard must be met in the league/region tournament in order to advance to the state tournament.

Team Qualifying

The league/region champion is guaranteed a spot in the state tournament. Additional teams (up to the maximum of three) may advance to state only if they shoot a qualifying score.

3A team qualifying standard: team score average of 140-over-par per round.

Teams within the maximum allotment per league/region and that meet the qualifying standard may bring four golfers, regardless of whether or not each golfer meets the individual qualifying standard.

A fifth and/or sixth golfer must meet the individual qualifying standard of 35-over-par per round in order to join the team at state.

Individual Qualifying

This section also applies to a qualifying team's fifth or sixth golfer.

The individual with the best (lowest) score not already on a qualifying team is guaranteed a spot in the state tournament. Additional golfers up to a maximum of six may advance to state only if they shoot a qualifying score.

3A individual qualifying standard: score average of 35-over-par per round.

Fallon blasts Truckee to move to 4-0

By Robert Perea

Just when it looked like Truckee might be poised to challenge Fallon, a 97-yard kickoff return by Nathiel Bianchi sparked a 27-point first-half explosion as the Greenwave improved their record to 4-0 with a 47-21 victory over the Wolverines on Friday night.

The Greenwave dominated on offense, defense and special teams, rolling for 366 yards on 52 offensive snaps, while Truckee managed 275 yards on 50 plays. Fallon quarterback Camden Richardson completed 14-of-21 passes for 134 yards three touchdowns. Calin Anderson caught two of the touchdowns, including the first score of the game that put Fallon on top 6-0 with less than a minute left in the first quarter.

Their second touchdown connection, a 7-yard pass in the final minute of the second quarter put an exclamation point on Fallon's 27-point quarter.

In between, after Truckee had scored to take a 7-6 lead, Nathaniel Bianchi took a kickoff return 97 yards for a touchdown to put the Greenwave up 13-7.

Alijah Juarez added a 65-yard touchdown run with six minutes left in the quarter, and just moments later, Maxton Richardson ran back an interception 72 yards to make it 27-7.

Rylan Clark added a touchdown run in the fourth quarter, to put Fallon up 40-14, and after a third Truckee touchdown, Maxton Richardson caught a 20-yard touchdown from Camden Richardson to finish the scoring.

After spending the first three weeks of the season, driving back-and-forth from Winnemucca to Reno and Winnemucca to Dayton, the Lowry High School football team stepped on Jerry Tobin Field this past Friday.

Standing in the Buckaroos way, an old-time rival in the Elko Indians.

Under the direction of first-year, head coach Cayden Mitchen, not much has changed as Elko put a damper on the home debut with a 35-7 win.

The Buckaroos dropped to 1-3 on the year and 0-2 in the Northern 3A. The Indians improved to 2-1 overall and 2-0 in league play.

After trading punts to start the evening, Elko moved down the field on a 70-yard drive and put the first points on the board with a 4-yard touchdown run by Hagen Robinson to give the Indians a 7-0 lead with 4:17 left in the first half.

Following a punt by Lowry, Elko was back in the end zone on a spectacular catch and run by Isiah Stewart.

Stewart out jumped Lowry's Kayson Clifton and ran in for a 37-yard touchdown catch from Adan De Jesus and a 14-0 advantage.

Less than four minutes into the second quarter, the Indians added to their lead, with Riott Duke scoring on a 12-yard run. Those were the final points of the first half, as Elko led 21-0 at halftime.

The Buckaroos had momentum building out of halftime, when midway through the third quarter Jovahni Felix intercepted a pass by Ben Marvel and returned it 55 yards for the touchdown and 28-0 advantage.

Lowry shook off the miscue with its best drive of the night, as Marvel connected with Keston Unrein on an 8-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-7 with 35 seconds to go in the third quarter.

The Indians answered back at the start of the fourth quarter, as Duke rushed for his second touchdown of the night. The senior finished with 173 yards on 23 carries.

On Sept. 4, South Tahoe shut out the Vaqueros 9-0. No stats were provided for that contest.

Chavez hat trick, two goals and three assists from Swensen propel Lowry to 8-0 win over Sparks

By Tony Erquiaga

For much of the early season, the Lowry High School girls soccer team has been bitten by the injury bug.

Throw in the annual Labor Day Weekend Fair, the Buckaroos had some players taking part in that event as well. Those student/athletes put time in for the fair all year long.

With that in mind, it didn't stop the Buckaroos from beating Sparks 8-0 this past Saturday in Winnemucca. The game ended at 60 minutes due to the NIAA mercy rule.

Junior Julie Chavez did all the damage Lowry would need, collecting a hat trick in the first 13 minutes of the match.

She netted the first in the third minute off an assist from Amaya Betes. Just two minutes later, she added her second goal and completed the hat trick in the 13th minute from an assist from Ava Swensen.

Swensen added two goals in the first 40 minutes of play and had two more assists for three on the day. Nayeli Andrade closed out the first half scoring, giving Lowry a 6-0 advantage at halftime.

Riley Ball and Yareli Garcia netted goals in the second half. Ball, the Buckaroos' usual goaltender was one of those players presenting at the fair. She got back to the game late in the first half.

Adalyn Entwistle filled in as the goalkeeper, stopping two shots.

Lowry plays its next four matches on the road, which started Tuesday in Reno against Debbie Smith CTE Academy. Results were not available at press time. The Buckaroos travel to Reno on Friday to play Wooster at 3:30 p.m.

Northern 3A East play starts on Sept. 18, at Fallon and Sept. 19, in Fernley.

Fallon volleyball gains experience with heavy slate at High Sierra Invitational

By Robert Perea
Range Media

With league play beginning next week, the Fallon volleyball team capped a demanding three-day stretch last week, playing 21 sets between Thursday's match against South Tahoe and two days at the High Sierra Volleyball Invitational.

Coach Tristin Johnson said the results didn't show up in the win column, but the week gave the Greenwave a clearer picture of where they stand early in the season.

"We had a great week," she said. "That didn't necessarily translate into wins, but we learned a lot about ourselves as a team."

After starting the season with only eight available players, the Greenwave had 10 players in uniform last week, but is getting closer to being back to full strength for the beginning of league play next weekend.

"Playing 21 sets in three days is a lot for any team, and we are still not at full strength," Johnson said. "I'm very proud of their effort, especially when I know they were very tired."

The Greenwave began the weekend with a Sept. 3 loss to South Tahoe in four close sets, 20-25, 25-20, 25-23, 25-20.

Friday and Saturday, the Greenwave went 2-6 in the High Sierra Invitational. In the first round of pool play on Friday, they lost 25-17, 25-17 to Ripon (CA) and then 25-16, 25-23 to Nevada Union (Grass Valley, CA).

In Round 2 Friday afternoon, the Greenwave lost 25-19, 25-16 to El Capitan (Merced, CA).

In Round 3 on Saturday McQueen beat the Greenwave 25-17, 26-28, 15-1, then Fallon beat Reno beat Reno 21-25, 25-15, 15-13.

In bracket play, the Greenwave beat Buhach Colony (Atwater, CA) 25-21, 23-25, 15-6 before finishing the tournament with a loss to Oakdale (CA) 25-19, 25-16.

Fallon's Raegan Johnson spikes a ball during Fallon's Sept. 3 match against South Tahoe.

Johnson said the team saw both strengths and areas that need attention, and ball control will be a priority as they move forward.

"We learned what we need to work on and we saw lots of good things," she said. "We will continue to work hard on our ball control in all aspects of the game."

With matches on top this week at Truckee on Wednesday, followed by home matches against Smith Valley Sept. 14 and Debbie Smith CTE Academy Sept. 15 before the first Northern 3A East match at Dayton on Sept. 18. Johnson said Fallon is still in preseason mode.

"We look forward to next week when we will have almost all our players back from injury and can begin the process of discovering our best lineup," she said.

The Pershing County volleyball team went on the road for a pair of conference matches last week, battling Yerington in a five-set thriller Wednesday before sweeping Silver Stage in three sets Saturday.

The Mustangs battled Yerington on Sept. 2, falling 22-25, 25-19, 25-22, 21-25 and 13-15 in a match that came down to the final points of the fifth set.

PCHS coach Monica Halverson said the Mustangs entered the match determined to take control early but are still learning to recover quickly from mistakes.

"We tend to hold on to mistakes, and it affects the played ball long after we get our momentum back," Halverson said.

Khloe Montes led the Mustangs offensively with a season-high 11 kills and added an ace.

Katelynn Elerick had four aces, five kills and seven assists, while Arya Garland recorded two aces, two kills, two assists and 15 digs.

Halverson singled out Elerick as one of the Mustangs' top performers.

"As a setter, she made things happen and created chaos for the Lions," Halverson said.

Cami Watson finished with five kills and three blocks, while Jerzie Jones contributed two aces, a kill and seven digs. Avani Rosas had two aces, a kill and nine assists. Ali Montes added a kill and two digs.

The Mustangs returned to the court Sept. 5 and defeated Silver Stage in three sets, 25-12, 25-13 and 25-21.

The match gave Pershing County an opportunity to use more of its bench while maintaining control of the game.

Halverson said the team's younger players continue to make an impact as they gain varsity experience.

Following his strong performance the previous week in California, Fernley senior Cael Wilson won the boys race at the Fernley 4K on Sept. 4, leading the Vaqueros in the Fernley 4K. Wilson finished in 14:22, topping a field of 52 runners from seven schools. Fernley finished second as a team with 55 points, behind Fallon’s winning score of 20 points. Fernley placed two runners in the top 20 behind Wilson. Daniel Hiles finished 11th in 16:43, and Ayden Johnson placed 18th in 17:26. Mason Varner added a 22ndplace finish in 17:38, while Logan-Joseph Petersen was 28th in 18:25. The Vaqueros also had solid mid pack results from Addison Davis (18:42), Cameron Farr (20:06), Parker Johnson (20:21) and Bentley Ubben (28:59). In the girls race, Fernley put two runners in the top five. Regan Scott finished third in 19:50, and JoJo Cardinal placed fourth in 19:57. Wynter Angus added a 10thplace finish in 21:27. Coach Kristian Slater said the Vaqueros were hit by a round of sickness during the week that kept several runners out of Friday’s meet. “However from those that were able to toe the line, they ran well,” Slater said. “Times weren’t as fast as the week before but still an improvement over our race at Douglas two weeks ago. I was really happy with Cael’s performance and showing that he is a contender for a low stick position at regionals.” This week the Vaqueros are scheduled to run in the North Tahoe Madman Mills Motivational starting at noon on Friday.

They followed with another sweep on Sept. 2, beating Wooster 25-11, 25-9, 25-9. “After beating both Wooster and Debbie Smith, in which we played very well and had the opportunity to get everyone playing time and try different lineups, I felt we were looking pretty good going into the tournament,” coach Diane Chapin. Fernley opened the tournament by finishing second in their pool play. They lost 25-17, 25-20 loss to Pinecrest Academy Cadence, and defeated Somerset Losee 25-12, 25-8 and another opponent. In the first match of the Golf bracket, the Vaqueros lost to The Meadows 25-15, 25-21 and finished with a loss to Moapa Valley 25-22, 22-25, 15-7. “The tournament gave us a good look at competition in southern Nevada and what areas we need to work on moving forward,” Chapin said. “We competed in every match over the weekend. We just weren’t consistent in our serving or attack, and we had ups and downs on defense.” Fernley was scheduled to play at South Tahoe Tuesday and host Incline Wednesday this week and also hosts Sparks at 6 p.m. next Tuesday before starting league play next Friday against Lowry.

Is it Fallon and everyone else?

By Tony Erquiaga
Range Media

We learned last week that Fallon passed its first Northern 3A test, with a convincing win over Truckee. The rest played out like we thought — well maybe besides the South Tahoe win over Dayton

1. Fallon (4-0, 2-0) (LW: 1) How does one of the best teams in the state not play a home game until the first weekend of September. Fallon was facing its first test in league play and turned into an open-book pop quiz.
The Greenwave cruised to a 47-21 win and the score was not that close.
This week vs. Sparks.

2. Spring Creek (3-0, 2-0) (LW: 2) Spring Creek stepped out of Northern 3A play last Friday and hosted Virgin Valley. The Bulldogs played Fallon in the 2025 3A state championship. The Spartans broke open a 9-0 lead at halftime in their 30-0 victory.
The loss dropped Virgin Valley to 0-4 on the season. Will they be a threat in the Southern 3A?
This week @ Truckee.

3. Elko (2-1, 2-0) (LW: 3) Elko jumped out to a 14-0 lead over Lowry in the first quarter and never looked back. The Indians run attack led the way through the Buckaroo defense.
Add in a couple touchdown passes and an interception return, the game turned into a blowout. Lowry miscues keep stopping drives and momentum.
This week vs. Dayton

4. Truckee (1-2, 0-1) (LW: 4) Truckee has been the same Truckee since its 2024 state title game to SLAM Academy. Don't get me wrong, the Wolverines are still strong and winning program.
They just aren't a top two team right now. Truckee was dominated by Fallon in a score that didn't show that. We will get an idea of what Truckee is when it hosts Spring Creek.

This week vs. Spring Creek

5. Fernley (2-2, 1-1) (LW: 5) Fernley has had worse than Fallon schedule wise with four straight road games to begin the season.
Someone find them home games please. The final in that stretch was a short trip to Sparks. The game was a blowout from the start, with Sparks severely under manned. Hey a home game this week
This week: vs. South Tahoe

6. South Tahoe (3-1, 1-1) (LW: 7) It may have been just the second league game of the year for South Tahoe but it was an important one.
With six teams advancing to the play-offs, the Vikings needed a win over Dayton to have a chance at one of those spots. The Dust Devils used a touchdown and safety to lead 8-0 at halftime but the Vikings rallied for a 12-8 win.
This week: @ South Tahoe

7. Dayton (2-2, 1-1) (LW 6) Dayton was in the same spot as South Tahoe was, but not having its top running back on the field for a second straight week, the Dust Devils' offense was not there. Dayton will have to pull an upset down the road to get into the playoffs.
This week: @ Dayton.

8. Lowry (1-3, 0-2) (LW 8) Like Fallon, Lowry was on its home field for the first time this fall, with rival Elko standing in the way. The Buckaroos' offense continues to the ball but seems like every drive ends with a miscue and penalty. Lowry has to find a way to score points instead of giving them away.
This week: Bye

9. Sparks (0-4, 0-2) (LW: 9): Scoring just seven points all year and losing 46-0 to Fernley last week, it only gets tougher for the Railroaders. The winless squad heads to Fallon. Hopefully, Calvin has heart and ends it quick.
This week @ Fallon.

This time Fernley controlled the game from the start. The Vaqueros scored on four of their first five possessions, had a touchdown nullified by a penalty on their sixth and scored their fifth touchdown of the first half with 19 seconds left in the second quarter, after another touchdown had been called back because of a penalty.
In all, the Vaqueros had five touchdowns nullified by penalties. And were repeatedly called for holding and other illegal blocks.
Sloan said he believed some of the penalties were legit, but he said others were called because several Sparks players repeatedly went down with cramps while being blocked.
“When they’re cramping up that bad, they’re dropping and we’re still holding on, and I can see where it’s a judgment call at that point, and they’re just going to assume that it’s holding,” Sloan said.
The Vaqueros piled up 516 yards rushing and another 122 passing. Elijah Devold led the team with 150 yards rushing on eight carries, Brendon Magil ran for 128 yards and three touchdowns and had two more called back and Jayden Esparza also ran for 100 yards on eight carries.
Devold completed 4-of-9 passes with two touchdowns, one each to Vance Swindlehurst and Keaunue Tolliver.

The Vaqueros punctuated their defensive effort by preserving the shutout with a goal-line stand. After Fernley’s last touchdown, Sparks’ Maeson Esquivias returned the kickoff to the Fernley 4-yard line. Despite having backups on the field, the Vaqueros stopped the Railroaders on four straight plays.
Sloan said that sequence would be one of the highlights of Saturday morning’s film session.
“That was a good test for the backups,” he said. “They needed to bow down for once and hold the line. I don’t think they realize what they did there.”
As happy as Sloan was, he said the Vaqueros can’t get overconfident.
“We can’t hang our hat on this and be too overzealous about what we did,” he said. “There’s still some good football teams that we’ve got to line up and compete against.”
The Vaqueros will host South Tahoe Friday. It’s also Homecoming in addition to being the home opener, and Sloan said the Vaqueros are happy to finally play for the home crowd without a long bus ride.
“They are going to be energetic. They’re going to be excited. They’re going to be relaxed,” Sloan said. “I think there’s going to be a sense of relief.”

RENO — Nevada running back Dominic Kelley’s standout performance in Saturday night’s 49-14 win over Western Kentucky has earned him the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week honor.
Kelley set the tone on the game’s second play from scrimmage, taking a handoff and breaking free for a 72-yard touchdown run, the Wolf Pack’s longest run from scrimmage since 2015. It only took him two carries to eclipse the 100-yard mark as he went 42 yards to open Nevada’s second drive of the contest.
He finished the contest with 152 yards on just 11 carries, scoring a pair of touchdowns and averaging over 13 yards per attempt. Kelley added a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter to give Nevada a 42-7 advantage.
His 152 rushing yards were also the most by a Wolf Pack player since Toa Taua ran for 160 yards against San José State in 2019. Kelley led the way for Nevada’s rushing attack Saturday as it piled up 323 yards at a clip of 7.7 yards per carry.
